16-20 September 2013  Norrköping, Sweden

Family Life in the Age of Migration and Mobility: Theory, Policy & Practice
International Research Conference

Provisional Programme

Monday, 16th September 2013

17:00 onwards  Registration
19:00  Welcome Drink
19:30  Dinner

Tuesday, 17th September 2013

08:45 - 09:00  Welcome Address
Prof. Mikael Heimann, Vice Dean of the Faculty of Arts & Sciences, Linköping University

09:00 - 10:30  Session 1: Keynote Addresses
Prof. Loretta Baldassar (Australia)
Mobilities as a new paradigm for understanding family life: issues and challenges

Prof. Bengt Sandin (Sweden)
comment to Loretta Baldassar

10:30 - 11:00  Coffee break
Panel I | Multi-local family lives in national and transnational contexts

Session 2: Occupational mobility and work-life balance in national and transnational perspectives

- Prof. Norbert Schneider (Germany)
  Job-Related Spatial Mobility Across Europe. Individual and Social Consequences of Increased Mobility

- Dr. Laura Merla (Belgium)
  The role of networks in transnational care-giving: the case of Latin Americans in Belgium and Australia

- Dr. Mirca Madianou (United Kingdom)
  Family life at a distance: migrant transnationalism in a polymedia environment

12:30 - 14:00 Lunch

14:00 - 15:30 Poster Session

15:30 - 16:00 Coffee break

Session 3: Perspectives of sending countries: care drain and transforming gender roles?

- Dr. Ewa Palenga-Möllenbeck/Prof. Helma Lutz (Germany)
  Landscapes of Care chain: the missing male perspective.

- Prof. Russell King/Julie Vullnetari (United Kingdom)
  Interrelationships between gender, care drain and migration: Albania during and after communism

- Prof. Valentina Mazzucato (The Netherlands)
  Children’s experiences of living in transnational families: A view from African countries

19:00 Dinner

20:00 - 21:15 Presentation of ‘Best Poster’ Prize After Dinner Lecture

- Prof. Arlie Hochschild (USA)
  The Outsourced Self
Panel II | Family and globalised (social) reproduction across the life cycle

09:00 - 10:45
Session 4: Family and globalised (social) reproduction across the life cycle

Prof. Stefan Beck (Germany)
Transnational/international adoption and reproductive medicine: Germany, Turkey and Great Britain

Prof. Lise Widding Isaksen (Norway)
Strangers in Paradise? Images of Care among Norwegians in Italy and Italians in Norway

Dr. Anna Gavananas (Sweden)
Dr. Ines Calzada (Spain)
Aging in a Transnational Era

10:45 - 11:00
Coffee break

11:00 - 12:30
Short Talks 1

Prof. Hanelle Forsberg (Finland)
Children, mobility and multi-local housing

Dr. Michaela Schier (Germany)
Doing family under the condition of spatial separation: The conduct of everyday life of transnational, transregional and intra-community multi-local families

Dr. Cédric Duchene-Lacroix (Switzerland)
National and transnational Multi-local Family lives: empirical comparisons from the survey „multilocal living in Switzerland“

12:30
Lunch and Group Photo

14:00 - 15:30
Short Talks 2

Dr. Maria de Guzman (USA)
„Yaya“: Philippine domestic workers, the children they care for, and the children they leave behind

Lynnette Arnold (USA)
Torquing Gender and Generational Hierarchy: Communicative Mobility in Transnational Salvadoran Families

Gregory Dallemagne (Spain)
Transnational Families and Social Reproduction of a Peri-Urban Community of Quito: Kinship, Belonging and Gender

15:30 - 16:00
Coffee Break

16:00 - 17:30
Short Talks 3

Saara Pellander (Finland)
Troubling Transnational Family Ties: Marriage Migration in Court Decisions in Finland

Prof. Sara Fürstenau (Germany)
Educational Careers in the Context of Transnational Family Organisation

Caroline Zickgraf (Belgium)
Managing family from afar: Transnational practices within Moroccan family networks

17:30 - 19:00
Short Talks 4

Laurie Berg (Australia)
Au pairs in Australia: The divisions of labour achieved by temporary immigration to Australia

Alexandra König (Austria)
Family migration and integration: Looking at the contradictions of immigration and integration policy

Dr. Marlene Spanger (Denmark)
The Role of the State in Global Care Chains
Thursday, 19th September 2013

Panel III | Family life in an age of migration and mobility: challenges for policy

Session 5: Roundtable - Family life, migration and mobility: policy challenges
- Prof. Barbara Waldis (Switzerland)
  Bi-national partnerships under pressure. Between migration regulations and family law.
- Dr. Majella Kilkey (United Kingdom)
  Migration and (Social) Reproduction: the stratification effects of developments in migration policies in Europe
- Paola Panzeri (COFACE, Belgium)
  Transnational Families: A review of EU Policies
- Prof. Sarah von Walsum (The Netherlands)
  The Contested Meaning of Care in Migration Law

10:30 - 11:00 | Coffee break

Short Talks 5
- Ioanna Tsoni (Sweden)
  Acculturation from below: Immigrant children brokering culture in two contrasted neighbourhoods in Athen
- Gudrun Bauer (Austria)
  Migrant Care Workers in Austria: Balancing Formal and Informal Care Across Borders
- Dr. Helle Stenum (Denmark)
  Managed mothers, fluid families and precarious pregnant in the Filipino Diaspora

12:30 | Lunch

14:00 - 15:30 | Networking Session

15:30 - 16:00 | Coffee break

Session 6: Forward Look Plenary Discussion:
Medium to long-term views regarding future research and policy developments relating to the families-migration-mobilities nexus
- Prof. Rhacel Salazar Parreñas (USA)
  Aging migrants and transnational mothers: disrupting the nuclear family in our study of migration
- Prof. Michael Keith (United Kingdom)
  Rethinking Migrant Integration: Between Individual Rights, Collective Belonging & Family Life in Policy Thinking

19:00 | Reception and Conference Dinner
After Dinner Party
Friday, 20th September 2013

Breakfast and Departure

Location

The conference will be held at Linköping University, Campus Norrköping.

Contact

Chair | Prof. Dr. Helma Lutz
Co-Chairs | Dr. Majella Kilkey, Dr. Ewa Palenga-Möllenbeck
Assistant | Marija Grujic
E-Mail | familymobilitymigration@gmail.com
Website | www.familymobility.de